

Student Profiles

Student A

Susie Q. is an extremely shy 8th grader. How could she benefit from joining an extracurricular activity? What extracurricular activity would you recommend she join? Why?

Student B –

Alex is an out-going 8th grade student who is very interested in making the most of his high school experience through community involvement. How could he benefit from joining an extracurricular activity? What extracurricular activity would you recommend he join? Why?

Student C –

Sally is interested in becoming a math teacher one day. How could she benefit from joining an extracurricular activity? What extracurricular activity would you recommend she join? Why?

Student D –

John is very interested in the business world. His father works in marketing and he would love to follow in his father's footsteps. How could he benefit from joining an extracurricular activity? What extracurricular activity would you recommend he join? Why?

Student E –

Casey is neither interested nor disinterested in middle school. He hopes that high school will be more interesting to him. How could he benefit from joining an extracurricular activity? What extracurricular activity would you recommend he join? Why?